I understand and agree that Registration of my son/daughter does not guarantee admission into the school and that Registration fee is neither transferable nor refundable. Further, I understand that once my ward has been Admitted in the School he/she could be withdrawn on prior notice of one month for the Day Boarder and three months for the Boarder falling which the fee for the short fall in the notice period shall have to be paid before issue of Transfer Certificate.

I also understand that school fees are required to be paid by the prescribed dates as per existing rates. In the event of my failure to deposit fees in full, the school reserves the right to remove the name of my ward from the roll of the school. The onus for clearance of outstanding dues still lies on me even after the withdrawal of my ward.
